ATTACHMENT A CAI Master Project List and Key

Central Asia Institute (CAI) Project "Key"

Below is the "key" for CAI's Master Project List (attached). In addition to providing a glossary of terms, this addendum provides descriptive information about CAI's projects. In most instances, projects that have been initiated by CAI, continue to receive support from CAI. In places where information is not available – due to the nature of the communities with which we partner and/or the remote locations and volatile conditions where we work – the information field is left blank until information is verified.

Support Definitions

Definitions of terms used on CAI's Master Project List in the column "Support Type."

- Basic School Support Stationary, school supplies, textbooks, furniture, playground equipment and monitoring by CAI contractors.
- Basic-Plus School Support Partial teachers' salaries/bonuses, stationary, school supplies, textbooks, furniture, playground equipment and monitoring by CAI contractors.
- Full School Support Teachers' salaries/bonuses, stationary, school supplies, textbooks, furniture, playground equipment and monitoring by CAI contractors.
- Government School Support CAI built school; now government supported.
- Vocational Center Support CAI built the center, provided initial investment of training and materials and provides ongoing support.
- Computer Center Support CAI provides support for computer center.
- Student Scholarship Support CAI provides scholarships to selected students.
- Teacher Support CAI provides teacher-training workshops, or full or partial teachers' salaries/bonuses.
- Library Support CAI provides library support.
- Public Health Support CAI provides healthcare programs, water projects, and disaster relief.
- Community Support CAI provides support for specifically requested community projects.
- Under Construction CAI is in the process of building the educational facility.
- Project Fulfilled CAI initiated a project and fulfilled its commitment to the community.
- On Hold CAI initiated a project and due to the nature of the communities with which we partner and/or the remote locations and volatile conditions where we work subsequently put it on hold until conditions allow for CAI to continue safely, securely and within the scope of its mission and philosophy.
- Project TBD CAI initiated a project and due to the remote locations and volatile conditions where we work has been unable to visit within the fiscal year presented. This could be due to the location in a restricted area (for foreigners see below), myriad travel constraints, or other unpredictable circumstances.
- Project Suspended CAI initiated a project, and due to the nature of the communities with which we partner and/or the remote locations and volatile conditions where we work the project was later suspended. This could be due to security risks, unrealistic community demands that do not fall within the scope of CAI's mission and philosophy, or other unpredictable circumstances.

Grade Levels

Below is a list of grade levels that CAI supports. In some communities, schools are all inclusive. For example, a high school could include nursery through grade ten.

- Primary Nursery through class five
- Middle Class six through eight
- High Class nine and ten
- Higher Secondary Class eleven and twelve (equivalent high school diploma in USA)

Student Enrollment

Student enrollment figures on the CAI Master Project List are indicated as "approximate" and represent anticipated student capacity of the school and expected attendance. Actual number of students may vary or fluctuate throughout the year.

Notes on Special Types of Schools & Situations

- SAP Schools The World Bank, through its Social Action Program (SAP), built numerous schools in Northern Pakistan. The intent of the program was to split ongoing costs of operation 50/50 with the government of Pakistan. The World Bank honored its intention. The government of Pakistan was unable to fulfill its obligation. After 10 years, the World Bank concluded its investment in these schools. Community leaders in many villages that have SAP schools have requested CAI's assistance over the years.
- Government Schools in Afghanistan Upon completion of school building, ownership is turned over to the Afghan government. CAI still provides support in many cases.
- Government Schools in Azad Kashmir Upon completion of school building, ownership is turned over to the AK government. CAI still provides support in many cases.

Restricted Areas

Foreigners are not allowed to travel to restricted areas without notifying the government in advance. The government grants permission by providing a "No Objection Certificate" (NOC). NOCs are often difficult to obtain for the following areas in which CAI provides support:

- Chapursan Valley, Northern Pakistan
- Azad Kashmir, Pakistan (earthquake-damaged area of 2005)
- Leepa Valley, Azad Kashmir, Pakistan (war zone)
- Upper Kharmang Valley, Baltistan, Northern Pakistan (war zone)

Geographical Name Spellings

The names of CAI projects and their locations are, as much as possible, linked to the most common spellings available. However, because many of CAI's projects are located in conflict zones and/or areas where the regional language is not a written language, variations exist.
